Dear March, Come In!

By Emily Dickinson

Dear March, come in!
 How glad I am!
 I looked for you before.
 Put down your hat—
 You must have walked—
 How out of breath you are!
 Dear March, how are you?
 And the rest?
 Did you leave Nature well?
 Oh, March, come right upstairs with me,
 I have so much to tell!

I got your letter, and the bird's;
 The maples never knew
 That you were coming,—I declare,
 How red their faces grew!
 But, March, forgive me—
 And all those hills
 You left for me to hue;
 There was no purple suitable,
 You took it all with you.

Who knocks? That April!
 Lock the door!
 I will not be pursued!
 He stayed away a year, to call
 When I am occupied.
 But trifles look so trivial
 As soon as you have come,
 That blame is just as dear as praise

Warm Welcome to:
